ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear for court as required; and
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted, supplemented by the testimony of the defense witnesses and exhibits. The defendant's criminal history, including a gang affiliation, prior convictions for felony drug offenses, misdemeanor drug offenses, and evading arrest, coupled with the facts surrounding this offense, suggest that the defendant is a risk of flight and a danger to the community. The instant offense involved a loaded weapon and cocaine found in defendant's bedroom, and firearms and drugs throughout the home where he lived.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 13th day of September, 2005.

B. JANICE ELLINGTON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
